

COMPANY ROLE SOPs

1. Sales & Operations Coordinator SOP

Role Objective

Own the front end of the business by responding to leads quickly, booking quotes, updating Jobber, following up on unsold quotes, helping keep the schedule full and organized, assisting with customer communication, and supporting light marketing/admin tasks.

Core Responsibilities

The Sales & Operations Coordinator is responsible for:

- Answering phone calls, texts, Facebook messages, and website leads as quickly as possible
- Booking quote appointments
- Running local quotes when needed
- Updating Jobber with every lead, quote, and job note
- Following up on unsold quotes
- Helping keep the next day and next week organized
- Requesting reviews from happy customers
- Posting simple before-and-after photos, story posts, and basic content as needed
- Helping calm and resolve customer issues professionally before they grow into bigger problems

Main Priorities

1. Fast lead response
2. Booking and running quotes
3. Keeping Jobber updated
4. Following up on unsold quotes
5. Keeping the schedule tight and organized
6. Reviews and simple marketing support
7. Professional customer communication

Daily Workflow

Start of Shift

- Check all new calls, texts, voicemails, Facebook messages, and website leads
- Respond to all new leads as quickly as possible
- Enter every new lead into Jobber
- Confirm today's quote appointments and jobs
- Review tomorrow's board for holes, missing notes, or customer confirmations
- Check on pending quotes and follow-ups

During Shift

- Keep the business phone on you at all times during work hours
- Answer calls, texts, and messages quickly
- Book quotes as fast as possible
- Run local quotes when scheduled
- Update Jobber after every quote the same day
- Follow up on warm leads and unsold quotes
- Help keep the schedule full and efficient
- Request reviews from completed happy customers
- Post simple content when needed, such as before-and-afters or story posts

End of Shift

- Make sure every lead is entered into Jobber
- Make sure every quote is updated in Jobber
- Make sure no follow-ups are sitting untouched
- Tighten tomorrow's schedule
- Flag anything urgent for the owner or team leader

Jobber Rules

- Every lead goes into Jobber
- Every quote goes into Jobber

- Every important customer note goes into Jobber
- If it is not in Jobber, it does not exist

Required Jobber Information

For every lead:

- Full name
- Phone number
- Address
- Lead source
- Service requested
- Notes
- Follow-up status

For every quote:

- Service type
- Measurements
- Photos
- Notes
- Quote status
- Follow-up date

Customer Service Standard

- Respond fast
- Be professional
- Be calm under pressure
- Speak clearly
- Handle complaints maturely
- Solve problems when possible, and escalate when needed

Light Marketing Support

This role is not the full-time social media manager, but it does help support marketing by:

- Posting before-and-after photos
- Posting simple story updates
- Helping request reviews
- Helping keep the page active with simple job content

Weekly Ops Bonus Standard

To earn the weekly ops bonus, all of the following must happen:

- All new leads are answered same day
- Jobber is updated correctly
- No follow-ups are dropped
- The next-day schedule is finalized before end of shift
- At least 2 reviews are collected that week

Performance Standard

This role should reduce the owner's mental load, not add to it. The owner should not have to chase basic tasks or remind this person to handle standard responsibilities.

Non-Negotiables

- No ignored leads
- No missing follow-ups
- No sloppy Jobber updates
- No poor customer communication
- No waiting to be told every little thing

Field Rule for Everyone

Safety first.

Protect the property second.

Then keep production moving.

Then finish cleanup strong.

And remember: the trailer is a major part of production, not an afterthought.
